The Canterbury Tales Of 1948

A Modern Interpretation of the Canterbury College Travelers As They Meet on the Campus in Danville, Indiana, in 1948.

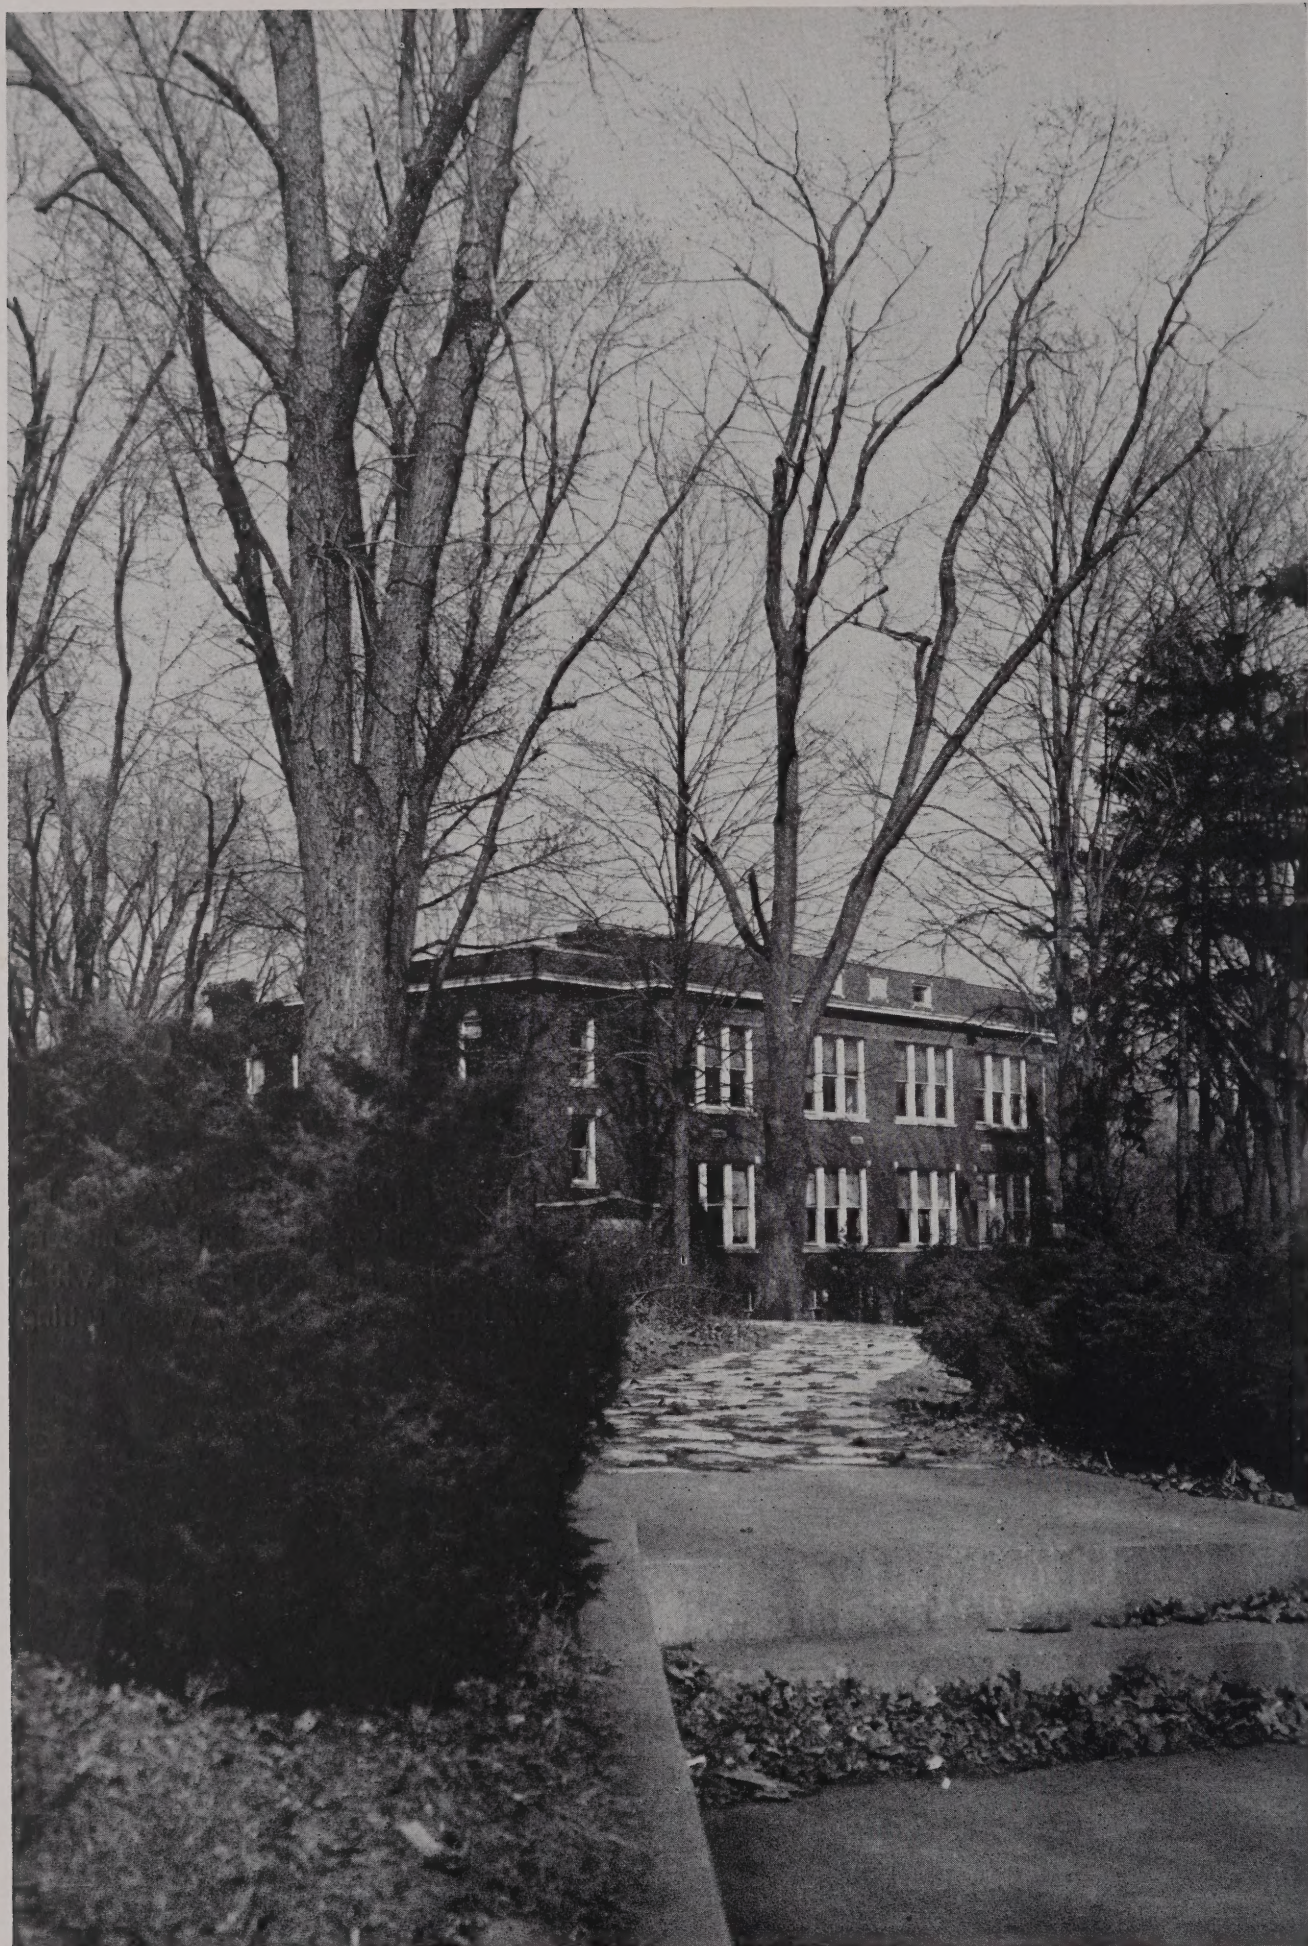

The Tales of The Modern Scholar

The modern scholar may cherish his "twenty books of Aristotle and his philosophy," and his speech may be full of "moral virtue," as was true of the clerk from Oxford. But our modern scholar has many other interests about which he may speak—interests issuing from that which we may designate as modern college life. Out of these will be fashioned a story whose setting is Canterbury College, 1948.

Canterbury Tales of nineteen-forty eight

And the Story of Our Modern Canterbury

This second year book of Canterbury College represents an institution whose enduring aim is the development of mentally mature graduates with a firm belief in the value of the spirit, and with a consciousness of earthly problems which can be solved only by a humanity Divinely inspired.

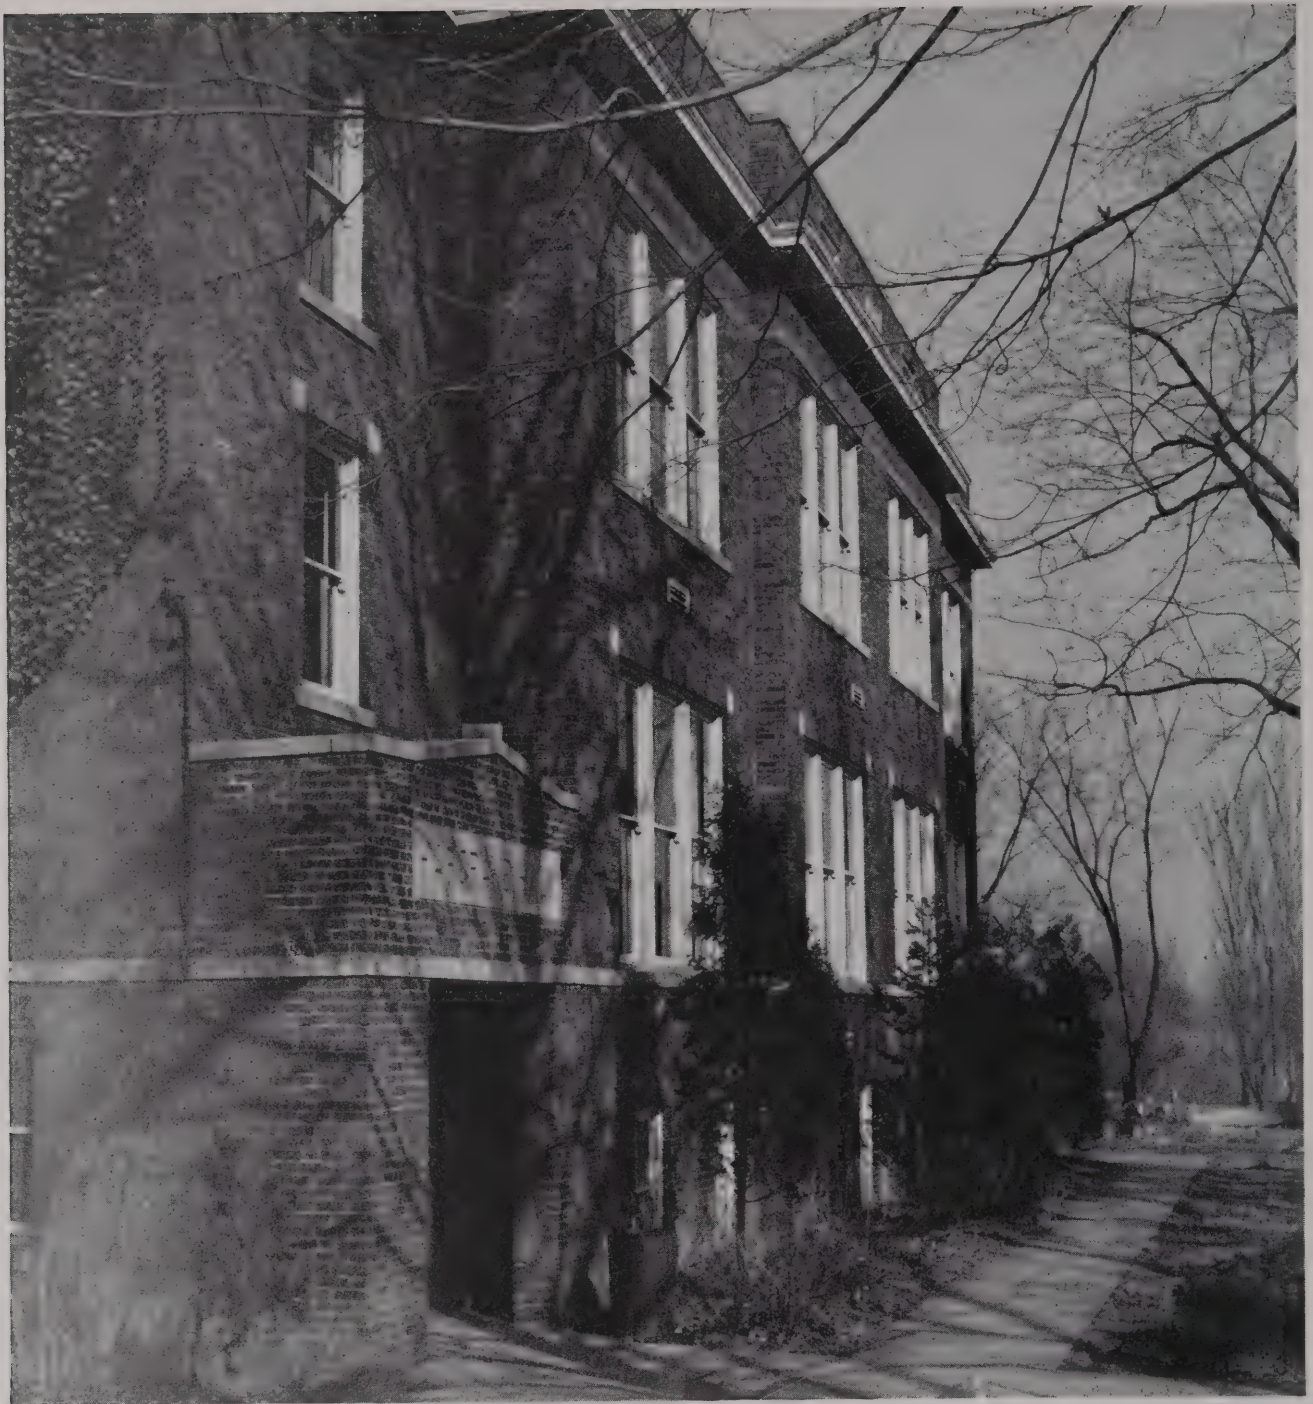

LIBRARY—The Library, part of the old Recitation Building and the college Book Store, was built in 1878.

GYM—The Gymnasium, erected 1938, contains all indoor facilities, the college dining hall and the student recreation rooms.

HARGRAVE HALL—Hargrave Hall, a classroom building, was constructed in 1915 and named after Professor Charles A. Hargrave, one of the college's faculty members of the past.

"AD" BUILDING—The Administration Building, built in 1891, houses the general college offices, Department of Music, and the Auditorium in which general college functions are held.

BIOLOGICAL SCIENCE—The Department of Biological Science is first in our consideration. Dean Hillegas and Dr. Potzger are the professors in this department. Here we tackle a vocabulary of long scientific names, and, in general, learn to know the biological basis of all plant and animal life.

ENGLISH—To know better our English language and our English literature is the purpose of this department. Under the direction of Miss Watts and Miss Stuart, we strive to become better grammarians and better writers, and sleuths of the comma blunders and the dangling participle. Even Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales" can have the new look!

LANGUAGE—German, French, Latin, Greek or Spanish—well, we do have a language requirement for graduation—and this is the offering. Shall we master Pliny or take Xenophon into Persia? Or shall it be a modern language? Mr. W. E. Johnson and Mr. Carson are the men to advise us in this department, and to give careful training in these languages.

SOCIAL STUDIES—Social Studies is an expansive field. Here we have Mr. Winfrey, Father Wolcott and Mr. Crane carrying on the work in this field. Pictured above is Mr. Winfrey lecturing to a history class that is busily taking copious notes.

SCIENCE—PHYSICS and CHEMISTRY—Mrs. Wolcott is busily engaged in explaining a difficult problem to a group of prospective atom-smashers. Boyle's law seems to receive much emphasis in this department.

MATHEMATICS—In this department we must accept the fact that mathematical accuracy prevails in the movements of the stars and planets. But mathematics is also “down to earth” business, too. Pre-engineering students find this a very important department. Mr. Dixon is the department chairman.

BUSINESS—This department, formerly designated as the Commerce Department, has undergone considerable reorganization. The secretarial courses have been retained, but a much broader training is now offered for those desiring to find careers in the business world. Mr. King and Mr. Evans share in the work of this department.

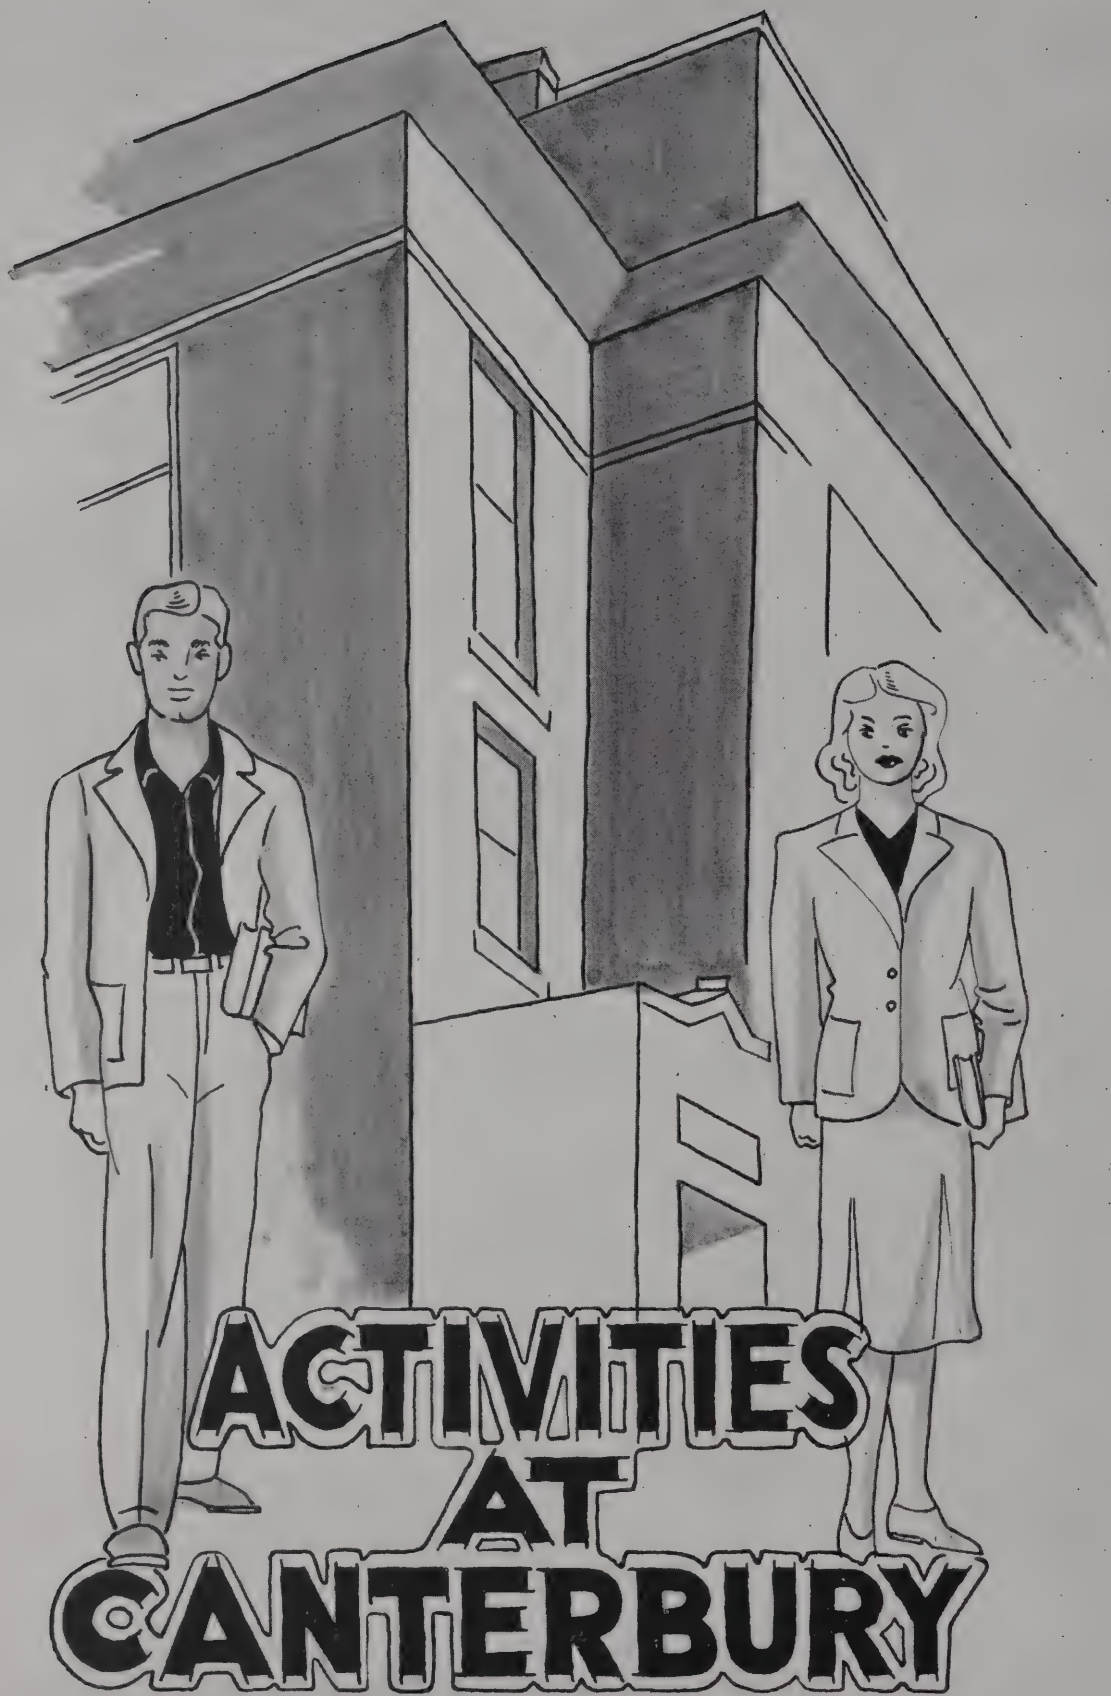

EDUCATION—The Psychology and Education Departments have much in common. Mr. O'Bannon is the professor of Psychology and came to Canterbury in September of 1947. Dean Neal has been head of the Education Department and in that connection is advisor for all those planning to become teachers of the public schools.

MUSIC—Directing the work of the Music Department are Miss Gaston and Mr. Hadley. This department is popular with a great many of our students. Affiliated with the department are the "Canterbury Belles," and the "Bellaires." The band has been under the direction of Mr. Skidmore.

ART—Our last scene is that of the Art Department. Here Mr. Wilson directs us in the developing of artistic skills and in attaining of greater knowledge and appreciation of the place of art in the cultures of the world.

THE CANTERBURY TALES STAFF

Joe Hodge, Editor; Bill Schleifer, Business Manager

The Staff of the "Canterbury Tales" started off with a big bang. After changing the name of the year book they started working hard. Between running to and from Indianapolis, keeping the printers and engravers worried, and going to classes, we, the Staff of the "Canterbury Tales," wash our hands of the "Canterbury Tales" of 1948.

Kappa Pi Beta

The Kappa Pi Beta fraternity is an honorary journalistic organization. In order to become a member of the fraternity a student must participate actively in the output of the Campus Crier for at least one semester or more. Any student on the campus may belong to Kappa Pi Beta by meeting this requirement.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The student-governing board is the Student Council. Members of the Student Council are elected by each class and all matters dealing directly with student affairs are handled by the Council.

The student body may refer suggestions, requests and communications to this Council for action.

The Council is composed of two representatives from each of the first three classes and three representatives from the Senior class. The Deans act as faculty advisors to this group.

"WHO'S WHO"

Among the students listed in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" for 1948 are five Canterbury students. These students were chosen by a committee of faculty members who took into consideration: activities, scholarship, and leadership capacities.

Bonnie Gross, William Schleifer, Claudine Alward, Don Tanselle and Neal Hagen were those students recognized for "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

S. C. A.

The Student Christian Association was officially organized for the academic year '47 and '48 on October 7. The officers installed at that time were:

President.....	Ray Harper
Vice-President.....	Bonnie Gross
Secretary-Treasurer.....	Wanda Bray
Song Leader.....	Claudine Alward
Pianist.....	Lois Barker
Reporter, Publicity Manager.....	Amos Carey
Sponsor.....	Wynona Stuart
Co-Sponsor.....	Ina Shaw

On November 4 we held our candle-light commitment service and on November 11 the meeting was an Armistice program at which the speaker was Father Savoy. Other guest speakers during the year were Dr. John G. Benson from the Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis, Father Wolcott, and Dr. Haramy, pastor of the Danville Friends Church.

According to a custom set last year we honored those who had birthdays each month with a supper. Other activities were round-table discussions, hymn sings, and the main event of the year, the annual Pie Supper. The object behind this supper was to obtain money whereby the S. C. A. could give a Christmas party for the underprivileged children from the Danville Grade School. The sum of $25.71 was made toward that goal and the beaming faces at the party were ample reward for our efforts. We are hoping that this tradition will always be kept by future Student Christian Association groups.

THE CANTERBURY CLUB

The purpose of the Canterbury Club is to foster on campus a better understanding of the Episcopal Church and to form the nucleus of the chapel parish. Membership in the Club is open to all students interested in furthering the interests of the Episcopal Church and Canterbury College.

On November 14, the Club held its first annual event—the Sadie Hawkins dance—complete, with gals openly choosing the men and a “still” for Kickapoo Joy Jucie. The Club sponsored four grave-diggers and a casket for Manchester in the Homecoming parade.

Our donation to the Presiding Bishop's fund was raised by means of the annual Pancake Supper held on Shrove Tuesday. The week-end of March 19-21 we sponsored an inter-college retreat conducted by Brother Anthony O. S. F. This year the Club also took over the responsibility of providing servers, Sunday School teachers and an Altar Guild for the Chapel services.

By means of these activities the Club hopes to serve better the Episcopal Church and further fellowship among the student body.

Canterbury Belles

A traditional girls' sextet known as "The Canterbury Belles" has grown to be an integral part of Canterbury College. Membership in the organization is competitive annually, and each Belle must prove worthy of her place in the ensemble.

The history of the organization dates back several years when the number of the group varied from six, seven, and eight, thus making it difficult to give the singing group a name. There was on the campus a song called "Bells of C. N. C." and so it was decided to call the group "Belles of C. N. C."

When Central Normal College became Canterbury College, the "Belles of C.N.C." became "Canterbury Belles."

The "Belles" have rehearsals every day and sometimes when programs are very much in demand, they have two rehearsals a day. No credit has been given up to the present time, and the girls have given generously of their time and talents.

The year of 1947-48 began, almost like the jet plane, before it started. Programs were booked much in advance of the school year, and the Belles had to have try-outs and memorize a program in ten days. That first program is always an ice-breaker and is usually a good crystal ball of future programs. The first program was well accepted and our reputation maintained.

The Belles furnished many programs throughout the year, singing for churches, schools, civic and social organizations.

In addition to their own programs, they have been joining the Carillonaires, men's quartet, and both groups have increased their repertoires and pleasures doubly.

The Canterbury Bellaires

The Canterbury Bellaires are the combined membership of The Belles, girls' sextet, and the Carillonaires, men's quartet. This mixed ensemble, therefore, originates in competition, and has daily rehearsal. Attendance at all rehearsals and all concerts is required, and although there is much hard work involved, the members have proportionate pleasure.

The Bellaires played an important part in all of the campus activities throughout this past year, giving special programs, individually and collectively, for Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, and Commencement, augmented also by the Canterbury Choir.

Two other musical events which proved to be very popular and for which The Bellaires have received requests to repeat, were "The Minstrel Show" and "Your Favorites" concert. Everyone enjoyed The Minstrel, and the performers had as much fun giving it as the audience did in hearing it. Everyone heard his favorite song at the "Your Favorites" program which was presented in "formals" in a transplanted garden.

The year ended with furnishing music for Baccalaureate.

THE CARILLONAIRES

In the fall of 1946 the battle of the sexes became evident on the Canterbury Campus. Following the annual try-outs for the girls' sextet, the "Belles," a group of men approached Miss Gaston with the proposal to organize a men's group. As a result a double quartet was organized and all that remained to be selected was the name. Finding no synonym for the desired name of Bell Ringers, the name "carillonaires" was finally agreed upon, "carillon" being a set of four bells tuned harmoniously, and "aires" being songs.

With the reorganization of the "Carillonaires" in September of 1947 it was decided that the group would be cut in half to a single quartet. Composing this year's "Carillonaires" two of the original group remain, Kenneth Coleman, baritone and a Sophomore from Waveland, and Robert Percy, bass and a Sophomore from Danville. New to the quartet are Thomas Parker, second tenor and a Freshman from Zionsville, and Charles McRoberts, first tenor and a Freshman from Danville.

Canterbury College Choir

The Canterbury College Choir is a musical organization whose membership is not limited nor competitive. All students on the campus may become members if they prove to be capable of singing and are regular at rehearsals. The true balance of the organization must be maintained in quality if not in numbers, and it gives each student an opportunity to be a member of a musical ensemble.

First Row: S. Dowen, M. Auge, C. Walton, C. Armstrong, K. Gerth, R. Hartsaw, F. Parsons.

Second Row: J. Mitchell, accompanist, A. Bischoff, B. Huddleston, D. Ruschli, B. Gross, B. Joseph, M. Gaston, director.

Third Row: R. Koch, T. Parker, C. McRoberts, T. Edwards, R. Ebbinghaus, L. Boyle, M. White, K. Coleman.

The Choir has become traditional at such College Convocations as Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter, and always furnishes music for Baccalaureate.

One of the most enjoyable traditions of the Choir is that of carolling at Christmas time for all the sick and "shut-ins" of Danville and surrounding community.

Last year the Choir joined with several musical organizations in various programs for the College.

The Choir is organized with president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and librarian and rehearse regularly.

HOMECOMING

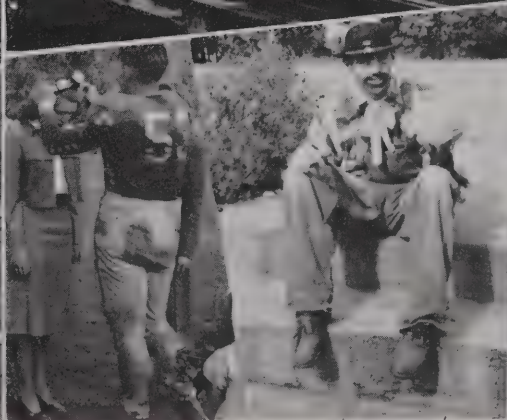

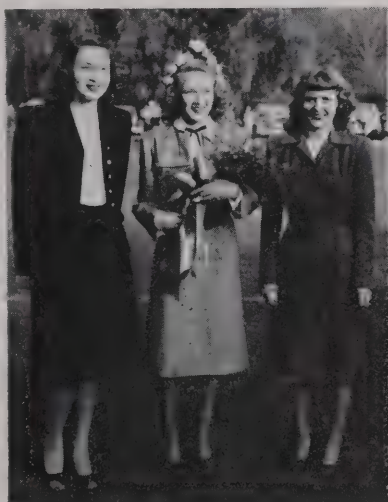

Homecoming was one of the biggest affairs of the year with its floats, bands and even a Knight in shining armor. The Alpha Thetas won the annual trophy for the best float while thanks went to the Zeta Sigma Nu fraternity for sponsoring a very successful Homecoming.

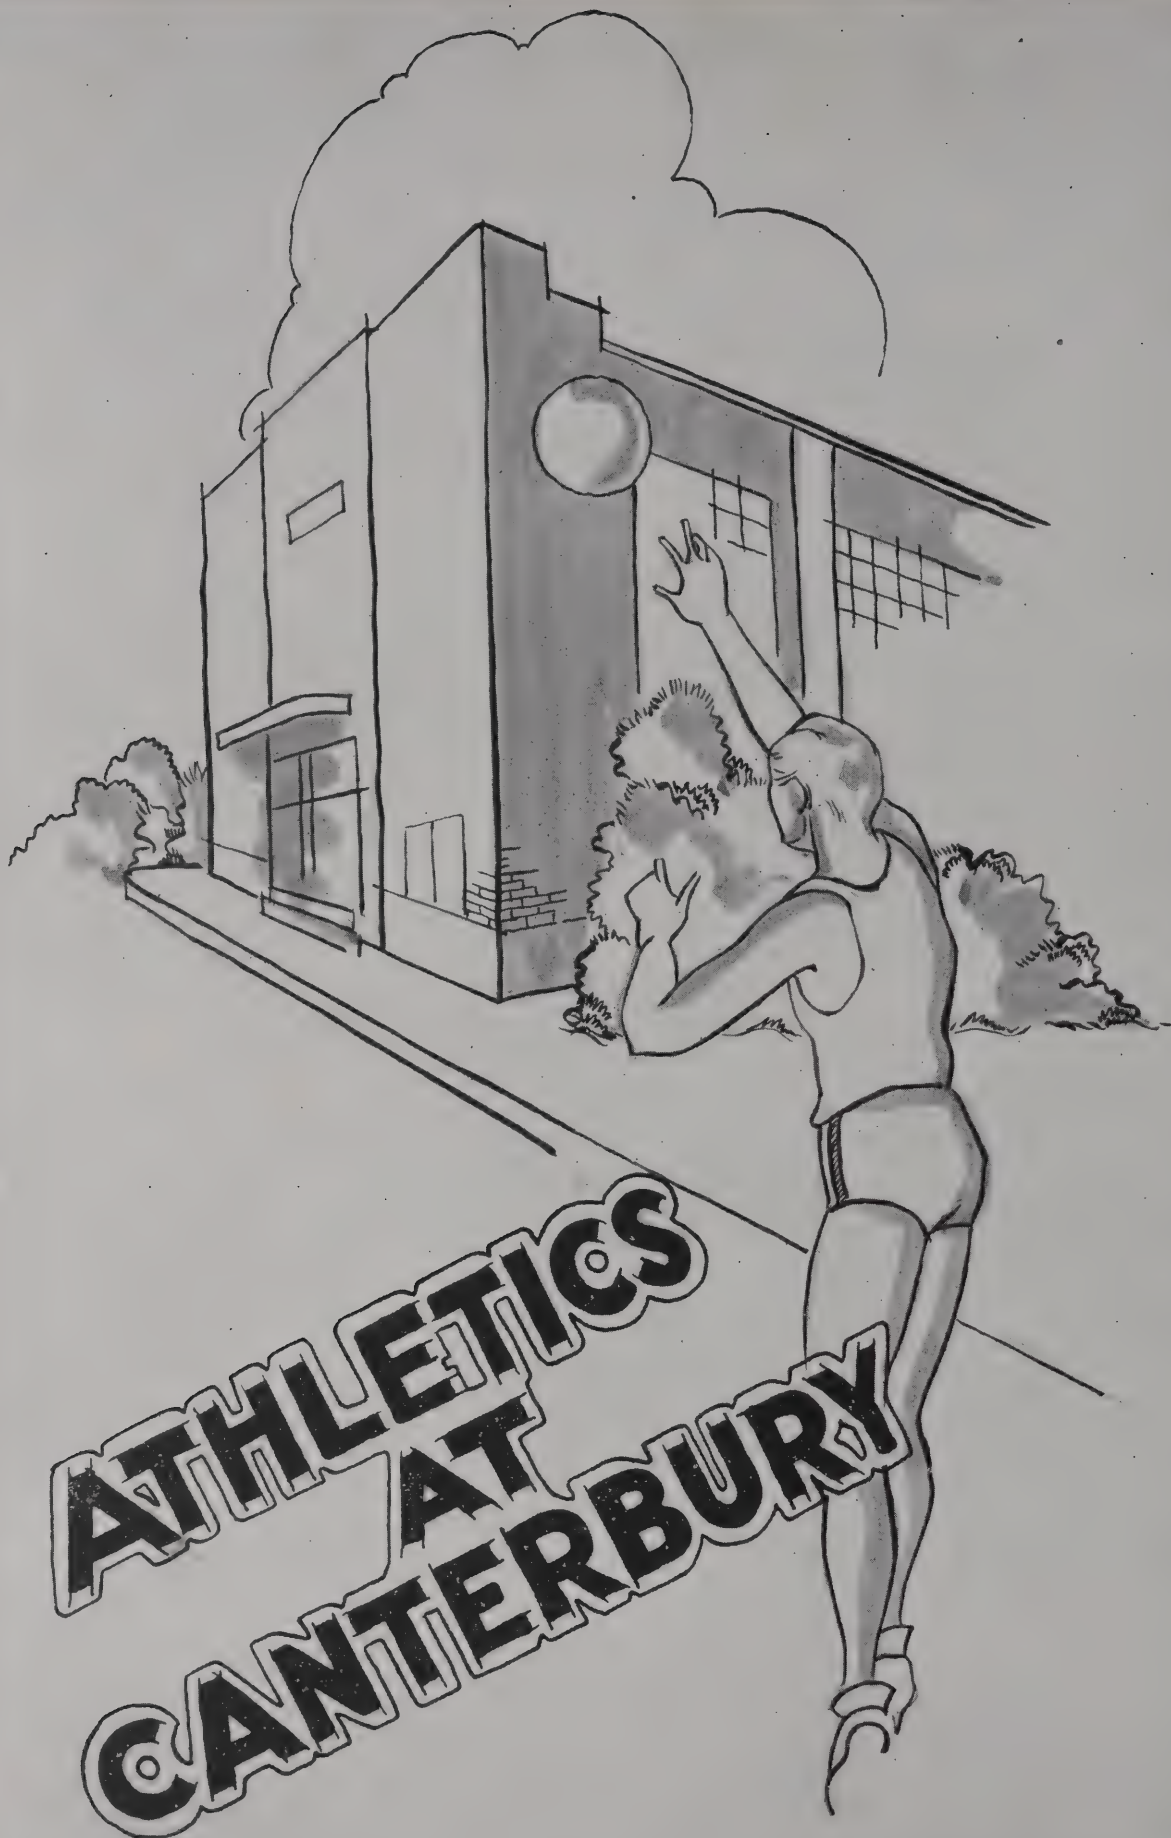

Queen

Patricia Schleifer was elected Homecoming Queen this year by the football team. She is a Freshman and from Plainfield, Indiana.

Wrestling championship and trophy were won by the Zeta Sigs. The scores by points are as follows: Zeta Sigs 30; Independents 10; Chi Sigma 5.

The Intra-mural Softball championship was won again by the Zeta Sigs, winning four games out of four games.

An All Sports Trophy was awarded to the Zeta Sigma Nu fraternity for sweeping the Intra-mural sports for 1948.

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association (W.A.A.) of Canterbury College is an organization for all women on the campus interested in sports. Its aim is to foster good sportsmanship and enjoy clean, wholesome activity.

The season was begun with volleyball and basketball, bowling, table tennis, badminton, tennis, softball, archery, and golf followed. Sports heads were in charge of the various activities. Homecoming brought the annual volleyball game of the "actives" vs. the "alums" with the "actives" winning after a hard battle. Two bowling cups were awarded for the highest game and highest average. A volleyball Play Day was attended enthusiastically at Hanover. Later a basketball game was played with Indiana Central.

Along with other activities the W.A.A. was in charge of all concessions. They also gave a banquet in honor of the basketball team and an all-county Play Day was held with participants from most of the high schools.

W.A.A. enjoyed an extensive season of sports and activities. The officers for the year were:

PSI CHI OMEGA

Retrospectively, the members of Psi Chi Omega Sorority have reason to be proud.

The "Alums" helped us start the year by sponsoring a "New Look" fashion show from Block's of Indianapolis. October brought the annual Alumnae Luncheon at the Lincoln Hotel.

Rush Week was the next big event. Mrs. Robert King offered her beautiful home to entertain rushees with a "mouth-watering" fried chicken supper, followed by a "fun fest."

Shades of mid-semester exams! A "Pre-Mid-Semeter Hop" sparked morale.

Our new pledges were formally introduced to faculty members and alumnae at a tea in the home of Mrs. Hadley Conn.

Having passed exams successfully (we were first in scholarship), the Psi Chis celebrated Christmas with Santa in the O. K. Dining Room. Merry Christmas! and to all a happy vacation.

Back on campus. "Hell Week" became "Neatness Week." Rough Initiation became an Indianapolis Symphony Concert at the Murat Theatre featuring Yehudi Menuhin, resulting in six smiling faced pledges. Formal initiation was held on February 23, 1948, at the home of Mrs. N. C. Herrington for Margot Auge, Alvina Bischoff, Lois Jamieson, Nina Jamieson, Cora Patchin and Marjorie Siler.

The luck of old Ireland was with us at our semi-formal "Blarney Ball March 12, including the Blarney Stone, shamrocks, and special entertainment by Louanna Rudd Triebel and the Psi Chi Trio. With tearful eyes and farewells, we bid adieu to Canterbury until we return in September.

ALPHA THETA EPSILON SORORITY

The Alpha Theta Epsilon Sorority is a sorority founded on truth, honor and friendship. The sorority is one of the long-established organizations on the campus.

The Alpha Theta's have engaged in a number of activities this year. The season began with a Halloween Dance. Homecoming followed and the Alpha Theta's won the trophy for the best float. Rush Week crept up and twenty-two girls were pledged. The formal Christmas Dance was the next big event. Hell Week, Rough and Formal Initiation with Mixers in spare minutes occupied the time of the members. A circus was sponsored and proved different from the usual events undertaken.

During all these activities the members were working faithfully, furnishing and painting a room in the Library Building to be used as a sorority room. This project was possible only through the efforts of our sponsors, Mrs. Hillegas and Mrs. Johnson and the Alpha Theta Auxiliary. The Alpha Theta's have had a very successful year due to our very capable president, Bonnie Gross, and our very active members.

ZETA SIGMA NU FRATERNITY

"Advancement" was the key word of the Zeta Sigma Nu's the past school year. For example: Early last fall, using the funds of our Builder's Association, we began work on two rooms on the second floor of the Library Building, planning one as a lounge and the other for meetings.

Meanwhile, wheels were buzzing. The results: On October 25, 1947 a gala Homecoming Day complete with parade and dance. We took the initiative and with excellent co-operation of the Administration and campus organizations it was a smashing success. The dance in the evening was one of the best with Tiny Delmar's orchestra of Indianapolis furnishing the rhythmic notes.

On November 20, 1947 we dissolved our affiliation with Zeta Sigma national and added the letter Nu becoming local Zeta Sigma Nu. Our greatest achievement, the acquiring of a fraternity house, took place the latter part of November and on December 5, 1947 we held "Open House." Large numbers of students and faculty, as well as alumni, on the following day toured the house.

Our New Year's gift came a little late but was large and of good quality. Upon completion of the pledge period we gained twenty-eight new members.

Our year closed with a bang with the Barn Dance and Alumni Dance.

ALPHA MU KAPPA

In its fifteenth year of operation on this campus the Alpha Mu fraternity is still maintaining those principles of character and scholarship for which it was first organized in Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1904.

The Alpha Mu Kappa Certificate of Scholastic Achievement was first presented at the Alpha Mu Convocation program on April 21, 1948. This award is made to the highest scholastically ranking male in each class for each semester. The recipient of this award must be a regular student, carrying at least twelve semester hours for credit.

The fraternity has been active in many social functions on the campus. Dances, inter-fraternity basketball and a Dad's Day have been sponsored.

Our ranks have been supplemented by the return of old members and the addition of new pledges. Our efforts of last year to build our organization back to pre-war strength have paid dividends. Two of last year's graduates have been added as sponsors to the fraternity. Richard D. Evans and Edwin Zarse have joined the staff of the college and have been officially elected sponsors of Alpha Mu Kappa.

The Smoker conducted this year was a true "smoker." The air was curtained with the blue smoke of pipes, cigars and cigarettes. Former Dean of Men, Robert L. Green, was guest speaker. Mr. Green gave the prospective peldges admonitions to be certain what they wanted as a fraternal tie and then make their choice.

"Seek and ye shall find. Knock and it shall be opened unto you."

Hail And

The Rev. Douglas R. MacLaury
Vice-President, Canterbury College
Acting President, September 1, 1948

We are happy to welcome Father MacLaury to Canterbury College, and wish for him much success in this new work.

Father MacLaury is a graduate of Carroll College, Waukesha, Wisconsin, where he obtained the A.B. degree. He later obtained the Bachelor of Divinity degree from Nashotah House, an Episcopal seminary near Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Before joining the Canterbury staff on April 12, Father MacLaury was rector of St. John's Episcopal Church in Irving Park, Illinois. He was also Director of the Youth Commission of the Diocese of Chicago. On April 12 the Board of Trustees of the college appointed him Vice-President in charge of Financial Promotion and Public Relations, a position which he will occupy until he becomes Acting President.

Farewell

Dr. Edgar Crowther Cumings
President of Canterbury College

This was Dr. Cuming's second year at Canterbury. He carried out his duties with sincerity and unfaltering trust in the college. It is with deep regret that we lose him at the end of this year, but we wish him both success and happiness in his new undertaking. Dr. Edgar Crowther Cumings, president of Canterbury College, received his A.B. from Indiana University in 1931; his A.M. from Indiana University in 1932; and, as an exchange fellow, the University of Leipzig, Germany, in 1932-33. He received his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago in 1936.

SENIORS OF CANTERBURY

The Senior Class of 1948 is the second graduating class of Canterbury College. It has been a busy year for most of us, handling the usual routine matters, such as ordering Commencement invitations and caps and gowns. We also have the responsibility for publication of "Canterbury Tales" of 1948. We have done our part in holding up scholarship ratings, participating in the major sports and promoting all activities relating to campus life.

In a sense it seems a long time since we were Freshmen, and for many of us it has not been the usual four year period, but instead as much as a seven year trek. And yet most of us wish we could start over again.

We leave our Alma Mater with high hopes for the future and with fond memories of the past. We are thankful for all that Canterbury College has given us, and we leave this school wishing Canterbury College a bright and successful future.

A TOAST TO CANTERBURY

(Music composed by Marjorie Dean Gaston, 1927. Words written by M. Gaston and Louise Starkey Wilson, 1939.)

To Canterbury now we sing,
Forever we will be
Your loyal sons and daughters true,
United e'er for thee.
And through the years we'll honor thee
And praise thee to the sky.
To Canterbury now we sing
And raise our voices high.

Though the Junior class did not wave banners or sponsor many social functions they did accomplish a few things. This is the first Junior class to sponsor a Prom in honor of the Seniors. They hope this becomes traditional every spring.

Money was earned in numerous ways. Dues were collected for the first time in this class's history. The selling of T-shirts, decals, letter-stickers, and pennants was the greatest contributing factor to the treasury. The class also undertook various other means and projects in quest of more money. The money was, of course, put to very good use in our Prom, which rated among the biggest events of the year. Many outstanding people on campus are in this class, active in sports, sororities, fraternities, scholarship and school government. The Class of '49 was today's insignificant Juniors—tomorrow's Mighty Seniors.

SOPHOMORE CLASS 1948

The Sophomore class of 1947, which is the first class of Canterbury College, and also the largest organization on campus, started the year with their first class meeting on October 7. At this meeting the following officers were elected:

President—Ray Harper
 Vice-President—Paul Funkhouser
 Secretary—Peg Martin
 Treasurer—Herman Cole
 Reporter—Jack Lynch
 Faculty Advisor—Mr. Evans

Although we have lost several members of the class since last year, we have quite a number of new members added to our class.

The second class meeting was called by the president as a special meeting. At this time a float for the Homecoming parade was discussed. This was voted against, however, since there were so few unorganized students in the class. Also there was no representative for Homecoming Queen chosen from the class since neither of the four unorganized girls wished to be voted upon.

Our last meeting was called after Convocation, February 4, 1948, for the purpose of making plans for the Valentine Dance. The Sophomore class, last year, started the tradition of each year having the Sophomore class sponsor this particular dance.

Although we have not been such an active class this year, we have been a "mighty" class.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS

The Class of 1951 is the largest class to come to Canterbury College. Its members have come from many states, and have shown a great faith in this new College. Members of the class have assumed many responsibilities in behalf of the college program, in athletics, in social activities, and in its religious devotions. It is a class of great promise, and gives evidence of continued loyalty to the ideals for which the college stands.

Seated: R. Forrest, Vice-President; K. Howell, Secretary; R. Warman, President.
Standing: J. Bryant, Treasurer.

Graduation From Canterbury College is of Great Importance

It is the closing period of time and successful ending of many long years of hard work; commanding praise from your friends and a feeling of personal satisfaction for having attained your goal.

This qualifies you to establish yourself in society, and your degree of success depends entirely on what you contribute.

The rewards you have just received have been bestowed upon you as a token signifying that others who have been rewarded similar recognition before you and have accepted their place in society, recognize that you have all worked faithfully together with willing hands and hearts and by so doing, assured the future guidance of the good old American way of life.

You will find a welcome here always when you return to Danville.
